This sleek, yet perfectly proportioned, collection would grace any interior scheme. With its clean lines and neutral look, it would blend well with other styles in the home. The marriage of a white marble top with a silver-coloured frame offers a contemporary look. The frames of the Camden range are carefully fabricated from square steel rod with a silver powder-coated finish. The tops are white Banswara marble and, as such, no two will be alike. Boasting five different items, Camden is a must-have for modern living.
